

Request for Coverage
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – February 11, 2017
THE CATALYST COLLECTIVE NEW ORLEANS INVITES YOU TO

UpStream

Contact: Catalyst Collective New Orleans

www.catalystcollectiveneworleans.com

catalystcollective2016@gmail.com

201-240-2190

Where: Sanctuary Cultural Arts Center
2525 Burgundy Street, New Orleans, LA 70117

When: February 11th 6-9pm opening reception

What: UpStream” works by Catalyst Collective.

Who: Catalyst Collective Artist:

Leona Strassberg Steiner, Charlie Steiner, Kim Coleman, Samantha Melfi

© 2017 Leona Strassberg Steiner ~Industrial Backyard Web

On Saturday, February 11th 6-9pm, (opening night and Second Saturdays on St. Claude Ave) the Sanctuary Cultural Arts Center, at 2525 Burgundy St, will be showing work for UpStream, the second show by Catalyst Collective in 2017 on the theme, Environmental Justice.

UpStream is part of a series of shows which engage the theme, Environmental Justice. UpStream includes photography and video works that address issues surrounding water.

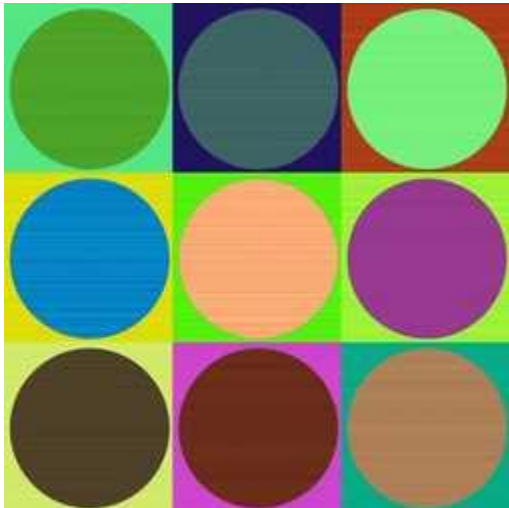

For more information, interviews, photos, please contact
Leona Strassberg Steiner
CatalystCollective2016@gmail.com
<http://www.catalystcollectiveneworleans.com>
201-240-2190

©Charlie Steiner, "Superfund Birds"

©Samantha Melfi, "Times Beach"

Who is Catalyst Collective

The Catalyst Collective is an arts and social action initiative in New Orleans. The collective was born out of PoliticoPopUp, a one-night exhibition in December 2015, that showed the works of 40 artists who create political art, which has very limited exhibition opportunities. The Catalyst Collective strives to support positive change in the careers of its members while also being a catalyst for positive change in our community and beyond.