

Request for Coverage

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE-February 27, 2017

THE CATALYST COLLECTIVE NEW ORLEANS

INVITES YOU TO THE OPENING OF

Zulu: Selected works by John Isiah Walton 2012-2017

Where: Sanctuary Cultural Arts Center

2525 Burgundy Street, New Orleans, LA 70117

When: Saturday, March 11 from 6-9pm

Gallery Hours: Fri 6-9pm, Saturday 12-4pm, Sunday 12-4pm

March 11, 2017 through April 6, 2017

What: Zulu Selected works by John Isaiah Walton 2012-2017 Opening & Reception

Who: John Isaiah Walton

Cheney Zulu, Oil on canvas 2012

Donald Zulu, Acrylic on canvas 2015

Born in New Orleans John Isiah Walton is a current member of The Front, co-founding member of Level artist collective & former co-founding member of Second Story Gallery. He has shown in New York, Austin Texas, Los Angeles, North Carolina & Tokyo. He has lectured about his work to the graduate program at UNC, Chapel Hill (2014).

For more information and works by John visit:

<http://johnisiahwalton.com/>

Who is Catalyst Collective

The Catalyst Collective is an arts and social action initiative in New Orleans. The collective was born out of PoliticoPopUp, a one-night exhibition in December 2015, that showed the works of 40 artists who create political art, which has very limited exhibition opportunities.

The Catalyst Collective strives to support positive change in the careers of its members while also being a catalyst for positive change in our community and beyond.

For more information, interviews, photos please contact

Leona Strassberg Steiner

CatalystCollective2016@gmail.com

201-240-2190